AN EVENTFUL LIFE ENDED

Mrs. Nancy Barger Passes to the Great Beyond.

CENTRE CO.'S OLDEST INHABITANT

She Died Tuesday Morning at 1:30 O'clock at Her Home at Curtin's Works In Boggs Township.

HAD REACHED THE AGE OF 106

Tuesday morning at 1:30 o'clock all that was mortal of Mrs. Nancy Barger, Centre county's oldest inhabitant, passed to the great beyond. On September 14th she celebrated her 106th birthday anniversary.

This interesting old lady resided, up to the time of her death, with her eldest son, Samuel Barger. aged 80, in a quaint old log cabin near Curtin's. She was always able to do her own housework and was in no way dependent on others, but during the first week in September, while out in the yard at her residence, Mrs. Barger fell and dislocated her hip. On account of her extreme old age the bones would not knit and the accident hastened her death.

Nancy Barger was born on Middle Ridge, in Cumberland county, a short distance below Harrisburg, on September 14, 1791. Her father and mother, William and Rebecca Tate, were among the first settlers of the community in which she lived, and after having cleared a small farm prospered. as early agriculturists were wont to do. Nancy was the fourth in a family of ten. She had five sisters and four brothers; all of them being dead, the last to die was Elizabeth who resided in Carlisle.

At the age of twenty Nancy fell in love with George Barger, who was a forgeman by occupation, and after he had returned from service in the War of 1812 she ran off to the home of her sister, who lived in Perry county, where she married him. This union proved distasteful to her parents and two years later the newly wedded couple decided to emigrate to Centre county where the Valentines, who had come up from Chester county to embark in the iron business had built a forge and held out inducements for good workmen.

With Samuel, then a babe in her arms, and her husband she started overland in a wagon for Bellefonte. When the family reached that place three weeks later they found a settlement of a dozen or more houses supporting three stores and boasting the seat of government of a county just 15 years old. George found employment in the Valentine works and stayed about Bellefonte until 1820, when Roland Curtin hired him to work at the new Eagle works which had just been built near the site of the present forge at Curtin's.

During the time they lived in Bellefonte Mrs. Barger saw many a pack train start to Pittsburg with its load of iron and the product that was not disposed of in that market was shipped in arks down Spring Creek to Bald Eagle, thence to the Susquehanna river and Havre de Grace. She was at the old Washington furnace the day James Monks, the second murderer to be arrested in the county, was hung and remembered well the excitement of that day in Bellefonte.

After moving to Curtin's works they removed to Mill Hall and then back to Curtin's again in 1832. From that time until the present day she was the occupant of the little house in which she died.

In 1852 her husband died leaving her with a grown-up family of seven children, all of whom are living except two. William resides in Clearfield county, and with his two brothers, James and Constance who live at Curtin's, served his country all through the Rebellion. Of the four sons she sent at her country's call all returned but John. Samuel, the eldest, was enrolled four times, but never being drafted he remained at home to care for his mother and two sisters.

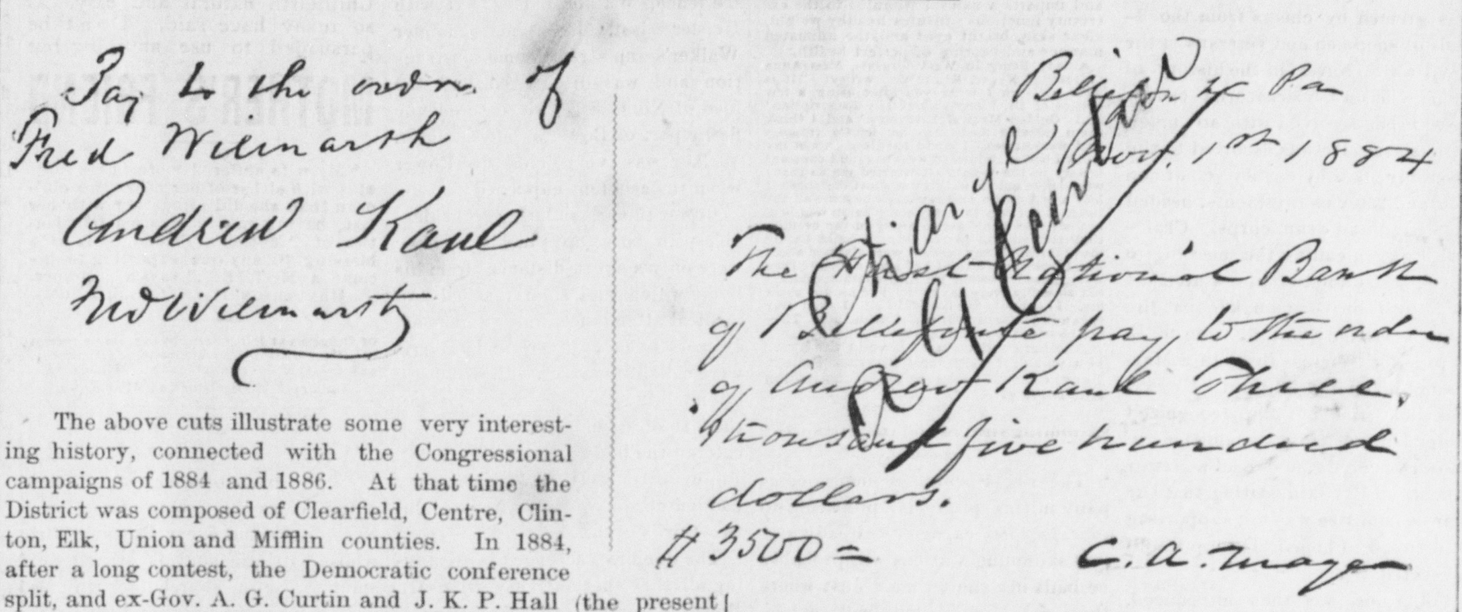
A correspondent recently called upon Mrs. Barger and found her seated in the chair presented to her by the Grand Army, with a sun bonnet on, surrounded by three of her grandchildren. For a few days after her fall the old lady was unconscious, but she greatly improved and talked quite freely of her fall; she spoke of how fortunate it was that the accident had not occurred further away from the house as if it were her practice to wander quite a distance. Her mind was as clear as could be and the only thing noticeable was a little deafness.

Her son, Samuel Barger, 80 years of age, was able to attend to all the wants of his mother. Both of these interesting characters did not seem to object to the constant flow of visitors and the household in consequence was never in need. The log cabin is filled with old furniture which has been collected during their long lives.

The funeral will take place this Thursday morning at 10 o'clock from the church at Curtin's works; interment in Curtin's cemetery. She was 106 years, 1 month and 14 days old.

TREACHERY EXPOSED.

How "Pluck-me-store" Hall Betrayed Curtin in 1884---Do You Want to Trust Him Now?



The above cuts illustrate some very interesting history, connected with the Congressional campaigns of 1884 and 1886. At that time the District was composed of Clearfield, Centre, Clinton, Elk, Union and Mifflin counties. In 1884, after a long contest, the Democratic conference split, and ex-Gov. A. G. Curtin and J. K. P. Hall (the present Democratic candidate) both became candidates. Hon. John Patton was the Republican candidate. A few days before the election in 1884, by an agreement with Curtin and the Democratic State Committee, Hall withdrew and agreed to support Curtin, for which Curtin paid him ($3,500.) THIRTY-FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS. The above check shows the payment. Judge Charles A. Mayor drew the check and represented Curtin in the deal, and the check shows on its face, that it was charged to Curtin's bank account. This check was made payable to Andrew Kaul, of the firm of Hall & Kaul, who has been J. K. P. Hall's business partner for years. Kaul passed the check over to Fred Wilmarth, Hall & Kaul's banker at St. Marys, Elk Co., Pa., and Hall thus got the cash. After he got $3,500, of Curtin's money, in pursuance of an agreement to support Curtin, Hall went home and in perfidy and treachery turned Elk county, against Curtin and gave Patton 1,260 majority in Elk, which was naturally Democratic by from 600 to 1,000 majority. Curtin was not defeated, however, for Centre county, where the people all loved the old Governor, supported him with an enormous vote, and J. K. P. Hall's treachery and dishonesty failed. In 1886, Hall was nominated, and Curtin's friends, remembering his base treachery, defeated him at the polls. The check,of which the above cut is a FAC SIMILE, was obtained from Governor Curtin by the late Hon. John H. Orvis, a warm friend of the Governor. As has been stated, Curtin, Orvis and their friends, righteously indignant at Hall's deceit, infamy and perfidy in 1884, defeated Hall as he so richly deserved.

Colonel Stone's Platform.

It is well to recall occasionally the platform upon which Col. Stone stands. Here it is, from his letter accepting the nomination:

It will be my purpose when elected to so conduct myself as to win the respect and good will of those who have opposed me as well as those who have given me their support. I shall be the governor of the whole people of the State. Abuses have undoubtedly grown up in the Legislature which are neither the fault of one party nor the other, but rather the growth of custom. Unnecessary investigations have been authorized by committees resulting in unnecessary expense to the State. It will be my care and purpose to correct these and other evils in so far as I have the power. It will be my purpose while Governor of Pennsylvania, as it has been my purpose in the public positions that I have held, with God's help, to discharge my whole duty. The people are greater than the parties to which they belong. I am only jealous of their favor. I shall only attempt to win their approval and my experience has taught me that that can best be done by an honest, modest, daily discharge of public duty.

With such a Governor at Harrisburg Pennsylvania will be safe, and at the same time will be in through sympathy with the Administration at Washington.

THE Democratic party is no better today than in the past. It is just as malicious and vicious as at any other period of its history. It has made great pretenses in order to get into power, but every one of them has been belied in practice. It cannot be trusted now. Give it the opportunity and it will carry into effect its free trade and free coinage theories and all those other doctrines that mean ruin to the country. Vote the straight Republican ticket.

STAND by McKinley in securing an honorable peace and all that we are entitled to as the result of the war. Give him the encouragement and sustaining influence of a great Republican victory.

Is It Stone or Jenks?

Stone or Jenks will be elected Governor next week.

Stone believes in McKinley, the McKinley tariff and honest money.

Jenks believes in Bryan, in free trade and in free silver, and in 1896 went upon the stump for Bryan and a bogus dollar,

Every free silver Democrat is looking forward to 1900.

Where is the Republican, realizing the danger in Bryanism, who will vote for Bryan's representative in Pennsylvania?

Honest John Daley.

The above picture is a correct likeness of that sturdy Republican, John A. Daley, of Curtin township, one of our nominees for the legislature. Born of Irish parents he inherited their ready wit and strength of character. All his life he has been a worker, a man of the people. He is classed among Centre county's most successful farmers, a fluent conversationalist and a genial gentleman. He farms to-day the same place in Curtin township that his father purchased in 1852. During the rebellion he fought nobly in defense of his country. being a member of Co. A, 45th Pennsylvania Volunteers. He entered a private and was mustered out with the rank of a Sergeant.

In 1889 he was appointed to a position in the office of the Secretary of the Interior which he filled with satisfaction and honor for a period of four years.

The people of Centre county will make no mistake in electing Honest John Daley to the legislature.

Vote for "Get There" Eli Townsend for the Legislature.

Uphold the President.

From his pulpit in New York a few days ago Rev. Thomas Dixon uttered these words:

"If you send to Washington a hostile congress within 48 hours from the time the defeat of the administration is announced the Spanish commission will smash the protocol to atoms and your commission will be on its way back to the United States. I believe it is the patriotic duty of every loyal American to stand by the administration until every issue for which the war was fought is the law of the kingdom of Spain and of the United States."

General Sickles in a recent speech made the startling assertion that "The Peace Commission is a farce and out of it will come no practical good. Within three months this nation will be at war with Spain!"

If the utterences of these two great men are worthy of our consideration it will at once become manifest to us that we are not yet out of the woods with Spain.

Where will the American people stand in that event? The Republican party stands by the president, the opposition means reaction and retreat.

Let your watchword be, "My God and my Country" and there will be no doubt as to the way you will vote.

Get Out the Vote.

Get out every Republican vote next Tuesday. A full Republican vote means a Republican victory in Centre county. Don't wait to be asked or urged to go to the polls, but go there early next Tuesday morning and cast a straight Republican ballot.

Mark the First Column.

The Republican ticket will be found in the first column on the ballot. Place an X mark in the circle at the top of the first column on the official ballot and you will have done your duty to your state and country.

Vote for A C. Williams for Prothonotary.

Civil Service Shake Up.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 27.—it is understood that a presidential edict, removing a large number of government officers from the civil service, probably will be promulgated shortly before Thanksgiving Day. The order is one which has been in contemplation many months, having been deferred from time to time, owing to pressure of war business. As at present determined upon, the order will affect upwards of 6,000 places.

It will include deputy collectors of internal revenue who are authorized to become acting collectors, serving in that capacity. There ar eactually about 2,000 of these deputies.

The largest class affected is the corps of examining surgeons of the pension bureau, of whom there are in all over 4,100. There seems to be a general undertaking that it will be better to have these left out of the civil service, although Secretary Bliss, while understood to favor such action, would not recommend it. Over 3,000 of these surgeons are stated at the civil service commission never to have been classified under the civil service law. The order will clear up the misapprehension as to the actual status of the whole corps and place them all outside.

About fifty office deputy marshals heretofore reported as classified, but concerning whose status there has been some doubt, because of their being in the judicial branch of the service, are expected to be placed in the exempt class.

There are other scattering positions, including some of a fiduciary and confidential character, which will aggregate possibly several hundred.

This is the scope of the order as now outlined in official quarters, but it is subject to further modification before being finally passed upon.

A. C. WILLIAMS, our candidate for Prothonotary, is one of the best school teachers in the county and thoroughly qualified for the office for which he has been nominated. Vote for him.

THE CABINET MEETS!

Little Attention Paid to Paris Peace Negotiations.

OUR COURSE IS ALREADY LAID OUT

We Will Retain the Entire Philippine Archipelago—Spanish Bonds Will Not Enter into the Question.

WE MAY PAY A CERTAIN SUM

WASHINGTON, November 2.—While the cabinet gave little attention yesterday to the peace negotiations at Paris, there is no longer any doubt as to the general purpose of this government to retain the entire Philippine archipelago. If after final balancing of the account, viz., the coast of the war to the United States on one side and our acquisitions on the other, it is found that any compensation is due the Spaniards, it will be made in a lump sum. It is pointed out that at the time the protocol was signed the United States did not have and has not since acquired any part of the Philippines outside of *M*anila city and harbor, and that the United States has never entertained a purpose to acquire any territory by the power of conquest. What the United States will insist upon is that she must be fully reimbursed for every dollar expended by her on account of the war, and in the statement will be included an amount sufficient to cover all payments, present and prospective, on account of pensions incident to the war.

No Spanish bonds of any character or amount other than local or municipal bonds will be paid or assumed by this government. The question of the status of muncipal obligations under circumstances like the present is fully settled by international law; they must be recognized as valid and binding by the conquering power and hence it is assumed that the United States will not raise any questions on this point, but promptly consent to guarantee their final payment. What sum of money this government will consent to pay to Spain cannot even be estimated, but when the final account is rendered it is believed the balance due Spain will be small, probably not exceeding $25,000,000 or $30,000,000.

The belief still prevails among the majority of the cabinet that the Spaniards will accept the terms laid down by the United States and that whatever of delay occurs before that result is reached will be chargeable only to the purpose of the Spaniards to secure the best possible terms; to extort the last possible million dollars before acceding to our demands.

The possibility of disagreement of the commissioners and the failure of the conferences, however, is now contemplated with greater equanimity than at an earlier stage of the negotiations. The administration has satisfied itself that Spain is neither able nor willing to resume hostilities on any scale that would make her a dangerous opponent to the United States. Therefore, supposing the Paris conference to fail, all that would be imposed upon our government as an immediate duty would be to take complete military possession of the Philippines. This it is believed would be accomplished by us without loss of time or life. The last vestige of Spanish military power in the islands is that under Colonel Rios, commander in chief of the Visayas islands, and by deputized authority, in charge of all Spanish territory not directly within the control of the United States, in the Philippines. His force is insignificant from a military point of view and it is doubtful if he could have held his own against the insurgents had the Tagals been allowed by Admiral Dewey to make Manila the base of an expedition directed against the Spanish commander.

Fashoda.

The facts on which the Fashoda dispute is based are very much deeper than is generally supposed. At first sight it would appear as if the French were grasping at a shadow and disregarding the substance in pertinaciously laying claim to an apparently barren and unproductive spot while neglecting the fertile district of Bahrel Ghazal, But this is by no means the case. Fashoda is a point of incalculable importance to France, and it is correspondingly important that we should frustrate her designs in that direction.

It is her cherished project to make a railway from east to west of Africa, in order to divide the continent and thus prevent the joining of the two British spheres(north and south) by direct communication. With this object in view she has obtained from Menelek concessions to build a railway right across Abyssinia, the line being already in construction. It is essential to the scheme that this line should be carried through to Fashoda.

But it is equally essential that we retain Fashoda, both for the prevention of the plan—which would be a severe blow to British interests—and for the establishment of the cape to Cairo communication which will give us supremacy in Africa. The issues at stake are so vital to both countries that a conflict between them is more seriously threatened than most people are disposed to think.

There is nothing easier in the world than the wreck of a reputation. Even when a man has a good character it is by no means difficult for two or three malignant busy bodies to create a sinister impression concerning his habits. Once upon a time a man who was as kind to his family as it was possible for a man to be, learned, greatly to his consternation that a widespread impression prevailed that he was a domestic tyrant A loose-tongued gossip had originated the falsehood, and it was never wholly contradicted. Other instances could be mentioned in which grave injustice was done by reckless gossip, coupled with the very human disposition to believe the worst about one's neighbor without taking the trouble to make a personal investigation. If this be so how long do you suppose an unworthy man will retain a good reputation? When the young man begins to drink or to gamble or to frequent vile dens, how long will it be until his reputation will become so unsavory that no one will trust him? And what weary months and years of repentance and correct living will be necessary to restore him to the confidence of his neighbors. And even should he once more tread the upper path, how many and how vain will be his regrets for lost opportunities, lost through his own folly. It doesn't pay to acquire a smirched reputation.

A Compromise Likely.

Germany and England have recently entered into an agreement for the settlement of their respective African claims. Perhaps the former has given to England her long desired passageway through East Africa in return for other substantial concessions. In this event France may not wish to press forward in that portion of the continent But her position at Fashoda is strong enough, apparently, to enable her to make good terms with Great Britain, and so establish herself yet more firmly elsewhere.

STONE AT ALTOONA.

Republican Candidate Makes Friends Everywhere.

HE MADE A STIRRING ADDRESS

Altoona People Are Pleased With His Platform and Greet Him With Great Enthusiasm.

A SHORT SYNOPSIS OF HIS SPEECH

Altoona, Pa., Oct. 28.—A rousing reception was tendered Col. William A. Stone, republican candidate for Governor, on his arrival here to address a big republican mass meeting in the opera house last evening. When he stepped from the train he was greeted by cheers from thousands of shopmen and veterans of the Civil war. Never in the history of the city has a Gubernatorial candidate been received with so much enthusiasm. He was escorted to the assembly hall by county chairman Fox and 200 vice presidents, headed by a band and drum corps. Chairman Fox, in calling the meeting to order, contradicted the statement made by John Wanamaker that the State committee was fighting J. E. Thropp for congress through S. Marshall Williams, of Bedford. He said Williams was not the recognized leader of the state committee in Bedford county, and read a letter from John P. Elkin, stating that the State committee was not supporting Williams, and hoped Thropp would be elected.

Col. Stone was then introduced, and was received with thunderous applause. In his address he said:

"I am not here to preach the doctrine of dissension, hate or strife. I am here to preach the doctrine of the republican party. I am not here to say an unkind work against my opponents or their supporters, as votes can't be made by assailing the character of any man. I am here to preach the issues in my judgement of this campaign.

"It is charged that I have not familiarized myself with what the last legislature did and what it did not. I am getting ready to study the next legislature. If Jenks is elected he will preach free silver, and if I am chosen I will preach protection and sound money."

Col. Stone declared that the war was not yet over, and that the Paris commission had as yet agreed to nothing and would agree to nothing until after the November election. "McKinley's hands," he said "must be held up and supported." He discussed at length the sly and cunning tactics of the democratic party in slipping on the cloak of reform "to cover up the grinning skeleton of free silver and free trade."

In closing he said: "Should the people of this great commonwealth choose me as their governor, I will do my duty by the people of the State and serve them as becomes a man."

A perfect roar of applause followed the address and it was at least 5 minutes before chairman Fox could be heard. The latter then introduced M. M. Garland, of Pittsburg, ex-president of the Amalgamated association. He spoke clearly and forcibly on State issues for 45 minutes and was loudly applauded. He was followed by Adjt. Gen. Thomas J. Stewart. Congressman J. D. Hicks also made a short address. The meeting was the biggest political gathering ever held in this county.

A young lady recently sent 25 cents to a Chicago advertiser for a recipe to whiten and keep the hands soft, and received this reply: "Soak them well three times a day regularly in dishwater while your mother rests."

Wonder if William Jennings Bryan doesn't have about three nightmares a night in his camp cot, after reading of McKinley's ovations.

Perhaps a little demonstration of force would have a hastening effect on Spain.

Republicans, you cannot do your duty this fall by going half way. Vote the ticket from top to bottom.

—Vote for William C. Arnold the soldiers' friend, for congress.

"Beauty and Power."

The secret of a woman's power is in her complete womanliness, both physical and mental. This does not mean perfection of outline nor regularity of features. It does not mean wit, nor talents nor accomplishments. It means that physical attractiveness that comes from perfect bodily condition and the bright, happy cheerfulness of disposition which only complete health can insure.

A woman with a bright eye, clear complexion, mantling color in the cheeks and buoyant elastic step and manner has a natural attractiveness that no artificial agency can counterfeit.

A woman who is afflicted with the mortifying misfortune of a dull, sallow, pimply complexion or that listless movement and attitude which provokes only disgust and revulsion in the opposite sex, ought to avail herself of the purifying, invigorating power of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which makes a strong, healthy stomach and digestive organism; purifies the blood and imparts a natural stimulus to the excretory functions; insures healthy weight, clear skin, bright eyes and the animated manner and bearing of perfect health.

A lady living in West Virginia, Miss Anna Callow, of Kyger, Roane Co., writes: "It is with pleasure I write you after using a few bottles of Dr. Pierce's 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and I think them valuable medicines for female troubles and weaknesses. I could hardly go about my work I had such inward weakness and constant misery in the womb. It worried me so that I would give out in walking a short distance. I had a bad cough and my lungs hurt me all the time. I got very thin, my complexion was bad, and my eyes would get so heavy in the evening they seemed stiff in the lids. I could hardly move them. Many persons were alarmed about me, I looked so bad and had such a cough; they were afraid I would go into consumption. I felt so badly every day that I had no life about me. I used only five bottles in all. I shall ever speak in praise of your grand medicines. They are blessings to suffering females."

Another good thing to have in the house is a vial of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They cure biliousness and constipation and never gripe.

Skimming Stations for the Big Spring Creamery.

The Big Spring creamery company in this place is preparing to increase its capacity already and two skimming stations will probably be built in a short time. Just where they will be located will not be made public at this time, but the upper end of Bald Eagle valley will furnish one of the sites.

It has become a necessity to erect skimming stations so that the out put of the creamery can be increased to meet growing demands for it. The stations will be equipped with an engine and separator. Farmers in the vicinity can take their milk to the station, have the cream separated from it and haul the skimmed milk back home. The station will then ship cream to this place.

The present output of the creamery is about one hundred and fifty ponnds a day.

How Walking Sticks are Made.

The industry of making walking sticks has undergone many changes during the past fifty years. The sticks are bent into the exquisite shapes by being plunged into hot sand, which is kept at a proper temperature over the stove. Crooked sticks can thus be bent straight, and after they have been manipulated they are put on one side to cool, when they become perfectly rigid. Different kinds of wood require different heat in order to render them pliable. The most popular sticks are those made from the saplings of trees, of which the roots form the handles of the sticks. These are much more expensive than sticks cut from the solid wood.

A Rival of Aluminum.

Vestadium is a recently discovered white metallic alloy, of a beautiful appearance and great strength. It seems to meet with as quick and general an acceptance as was the case with aluminum. It is said to be firmer and much more practical than any other known-metal of equal specific gravity. It is claimed to be composed chiefly of an aluminum alloy, and only weighs one-third as much as aluminum of the same size. Furthermore, it is said not to rust, to withstand sulphuric acid, to take a fine polish, never to tarnish, and once polished, never to require cleaning.

Now it appears those Cuban insurgents don't want to go to work. First they merely asked for limited rations and now they want an indefinite loaf.

ACCIDENTLY SHOT.

About half past twelve Friday John Bower, son of Calvin M. Bower, democratic candidate for Superior Judge, was accidently shot in the left shoulder while on his way home from a forenoon's hunting. While the wound is a very ugly one yet it is not serious.

The accident happened on the Armor farm just back of East Linn street. Bower accompanied by two companions, Charles Heisler and William Walker, were on their way home. They were just coming through a barbed wire fence from a wheat field into a clover field. Bower was a head and had gotten through the fence, Walker came next with Heisler last. In some manner Walker's gun struck some obstruction and was discharged and the load of No. 6 bird shot entered the fleshy part of Bower's left shoulder. Walker was very close to Bower when the accident happened.

Bower though suffering considerable pain bore up pluckily. They were only a short distance from his home which they soon reached and medical attendance was summoned. Doctors Locke, Hibler and Harris were called in an a careful examination made. The wound was about the size of a half dollar and only entered the body a little ways. Mr. Bower fortunately had on a heavy padded corduroy coat which caught two-thirds of the shot.

The doctors succeeded in removing all the shot and say that Mr. Bower is in no danger whatever.

A dishonorable discharge from the army is the most terrible penalty imaginable, says an exchange. Nothing short of an act of congress can remove the disabilities that are carried with a dishonorable discharge from the army of the United States.

MOTHER! There is no word so full of meaning and about which such tender and holy recollections cluster as that of "MOTHER"—she who watched over our helpless infancy and guided our first tottering step. Yet the life of every Expectant Mother is beset with danger and all effort should be made to avoid it.

Mother's Friend so assists nature in the change taking place that the Expectant Mother is enabled to look forward without dread, suffering or gloomy forebodings, to the hour when she experiences the joy of Motherhood. Its use insures safety to the lives of both Mother and Child, and she is found stronger after than before confinement—in short, it "makes Childbirth natural and easy," as so many have said. Circulating Lies.

The democrats have sent circulars to the colored voters which state that General Gobin, the republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor, was opposed to the colored soldiers and the colored people in general. This is a falsehood manufactured out of whole cloth without a shadow of truth for its base. It is to be hoped the colored voters of this place have too much intelligence to be humbugged in that way by their natural and avowed enemy, the democratic party. The members of which to a man voted against giving the colored citizens the right to vote.

WEDDED AT EVEN-TIDE.

G. Williard Hall, of Muncy, and Miss Lotta Mae Spigelmyer of Bellefonte.

Wednesday, Oct. 26, at 6 o'clock, just as the shades of evening were falling, a brilliant wedding ceremony was celebrated in the beautiful Presbyterian church on North Spring street. The contracting parties were Mr. G. Williard Hall, a successful business man of Muncy, Pa., and Miss Lotta Mae Spigelmyer, one of Bellefonte's fairest daughters.

The beautiful ring ceremony of the Presbyterian church was performed in a very impressive manner by Rev. Wm. Laurie D. D. L. L. D., pastor of the church.

The decorations were simply suburb. The chancel and sides of the large edifice being tastefully adorned with potted plants, cut flowers and vines.

The admission to the church was by card, only invited guests witnessing the ceremony, probably two-hundred and fifty of the friends and relatives of the young people being present.

The ushers were all from a distance. They were Messrs. Charles Seaman, of Philadelphia; A. D. Huffman, of Williamsport; Lewis P. Sprout and Wilson Berger, of Muncy. There was no best man.

The bridesmaids were Miss Anna Stoughton, of Lewisburg, Pa. and Miss Ella Stevenson, of Williamsport, Pa.

Promptly at the appointed hour the groom looking manly and handsome and attired in conventional black entered the church and took his position at the altar beside Dr. Laurie. The bridal party entered the church by the north vestibule in the following order: First came two ushers in full evening dress, then came Miss Anna Stoughton, gowned in military blue with white taffeta and carrying a boquet of pink carnations, tied with pink ribbons. Then came the second bridesmaid, Miss Ella Stevenson, attired in green with nile green taffeta also carrying a bouquet of pink carnations. Then came two more ushers and last came the bride looking very beautiful gowned in a brown broadcloth traveling suit and carrying a hymnal. The bridal party proceeded up the aisle to the music of the wedding march as played by Miss Lillian Newbaker organist of the church.

After the ceremony the bridal party and guests proceeded to the home of the bride where a reception was tendered them. They were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents, some useful as well as ornamental. After a short tour to Philadelphia, Washington and other eastern cities, they will be at home to their friends in their residence on West Linn street, this city, in the house formerly occupied by C. P. Hewes Esq.

The groom is a prosperous business man, owning a large store in Muncy, Pa., and the bride is the second daughter of G. R. Spigelmyer, one of Bellefonte's successful merchants.

Among the guests present from a distance were Mrs. J. W. Albright and Miss Jennie Albright, of Muncy; Miss Jennie Stoughton, Mrs. Margaret Henning and Miss Jennie Henning, of Lewisburg; Mrs. Haus and son, Donald, of Mifflinburg.

Letter from a Woman

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy frequently cures several members of a family. While it is considered by many to be a Kidney and Bladder Medicine, it is just as certain to cure Dyspepsia, Constipation, Rheumatism, Scrofula and Eczema. This is because it first puts the Kidneys in a healthy condition, so they can sift all impurities from the blood. Healthy blood practically means a completely healthy body.

Here is a letter from Mrs. Capt. PETER RACE, of Hudson, N. Y.: "My husband was troubled with his kidneys, and suffered fearfully with shooting pains through his back. He took Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and is now well and strong. Although seventy years of age, he is as hearty as a man many years younger. I was so troubled with Dyspepsia that it was painful for me to walk. My food did me no good, as my stomach could not digest it. Somebody recommended Favorite Remedy to me, and after taking two bottles of it I was completely cured, and am feeling splendid now. We both attribute our good health to Favorite Remedy."

It is prescribed with unfailing success for Nerve Troubles, and for the Liver and Blood it is a specific. It has cured many that were beyond the aid of other medicine. Ask your druggist for it, and insist upon getting it. Don't take a substitute. It will cost you $1.00 for a regular full-sized bottle.

Sample Bottle Free

If you want to try Favorite Remedy before buying, send your full post-office address to the DR. DAVID KENNEDY CORPORATION, Rondout, N. Y., and mention this paper. They will send you a free trial bottle, all charges prepaid. This genuine offer is made to prove to everybody what a wonderful medicine it is.

THE FAMOUS FASHODA INCIDENT

General Kitchener Arrives in Paris and Leaves the Railway Station Unnoticed—Ovation to French Officer.

BROUGHT NEWS FROM MARCHAND

PARIS, October 27.—General Lord Herbert Kitchener, commander of the Anglo-Egyptian forces in the Soudan, and Captain Baratir, the French officer, who brings Major Marchand's dispatches from Fashoda arrived here at 10 o'clock last evening. General Kitchener left the railway station unnoticed.

Captain Baratir received an ovation from hundreds of members of the Patriotic League and others. Marcel Habert, a member of the chamber of deputies, on behalf of the Patriotic League, presented to Captain Baratir a gold medal. The friendly demonstrations continued until Captain Baratir reached his residence. There was no further incident. The city was calm last evening.

The Soir hears in diplomatic circles that France is prepared to evacuate Fashoda, with the reservation that she shall receive some compensation to be arranged hereafter.

"This result," says the Soir, "is the outcome of a new argument advanced by Lord Salisburg to the effect, that, as the dispatch of the Marchand mission was not notified to Great Britain in accordance with custom, Great Britain is entitled to dispute Major Marchand's right to hold the territory occupied.

"As the Quay D,Orsay is thus placed in a false position through the fault of M Hanotaux, the predecessor of M. Delcasse, the latter is forced to recognize the justice of the British objection."

LONDON, October 27.—The keen desire to hear the views of the liberal leader in the house of commons, Sir William Vernon Harcourt, on the Fashoda question was satisfied last evening by his speech at Aberystwith, Wales. Sir William Vernon Harcourt said it was the urgent duty of every one without regard to political differences to support the government in maintaining the rights of the empire in the present crisis, a crisis "specially dangerous owing to the unexampled situation in France."

THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK

Effect On the Markets of Foreign Disturbances.

SLOW BUT STRONG STOCK MARKET

The Recent Decision of the Supreme Court Against the Railroads—European Demand for American Grain.

THE PRESENT STATE OF TRADE

NEW YORK, October 29.—New York is rapidly becoming a money centre of the world. In fact, for the time being it may be said to be already that, for with the continued great European demand for our cereal products, with the large balance of trade in our favor and with the disturbed condition of European and Asiatic politics, New York, representing the financial strength and stability of the country occupies a commanding position. Only a return of the old doubt as to silver can overturn this fortunate condition, and happily there is an improved prospect of a sound money majority in the next House and in any event as long as President McKinley and Secretary Gage are in office there is no danger of national repudiation and dishonor. Being a world market any discussion of the business outlook in New York must necessarily include some discussion of the world problems.

The controversy between England and France over the Fashoda question, the peace negotiations between the United States and Spain, the demonstrations of the Paris mob against the revision of the Dreyfus case, the approaching dissolution of the Chinese Empire as at present constituted and at home the near elections, which shall determine whether the force of sound money shall control Congress or not—these are some of the powerful influences bearing upon the business situation this week. The chief effect of the excitement over possible war between England and France has naturally been in the wheat market. It led also to considerable foreign selling of American securities, as well as foreign buying of American grain. But it was noticeable that while European rates of discount advanced and prices of consols and rentes declined our money market was easy and the pulse of Wall street speculation did not beat any faster on account of the war cloud. The comparative American indifference to the European convulsion was due first to the feeling that Europe is at present more dependent on us than we are on it; and second to a belief that the Fashoda dispute would not lead to war. This belief has in a measure at least been justified by the calmer feeling that has prevailed abroad the past two days. The European markets have improved. The outlook for peace is better. In France a strong Ministry has taken the place of a weak one; the first steps have been taken toward the establishment of justice in the Dreyfus case and, while the situation is still precarious, there is less fear of revolution.

The chief domestic events of the week so far as the effect on business is concerned has been the long awaited decision of the Supreme Court pronouncing the joint traffic agreement to be a violation of the anti-trust law. This decision, however, had only a temporary effect on the stock market. This was due, first, to the fact that the decision in the Trans-Missouri case had prepared the railroads and Wall street for it; second, to the consideration that rates could not be maintained under the agreement, and that its illegality was therefore a matter of comparative indifference; third, to the knowledge that the railroads are enjoying an immense traffic and are earning increased profits over former years; and fourth, to the hope that the demand from merchants, shippers and investors for stable railroad rates will induce Congress to pass a law legalizing pooling.

Rubber Rollers are Used for Crushing the Grapes to Make Speer's Port, Burgundy, Claret and Other Wines,

Which, as is well known, rival the world in excellence, for invalids and aged persons, and are made from the Oporto grape grown on vines imported from Portugal forty years ago. The soil of northern New Jersey, containing iron, is just suited for them. Mr. Speer, however, uses the improved way of mashing the grapes. He employs large rollers of rubber run by an engine which crush grapes at the rate of a barrel a minute. Speer's Wines, especially the Port and Burgundy now in market, are of very old vintage, and have no superior. Physicians far and near prescribe them for weakly females and aged persons. They are blood-making, adding iron to the system, and tend to prolong life. Extensively used at parties, weddings and general family use. SOLD BY DRUGGISTS AND GROCERS WHO DEAL IN WINES.

A CONTEST TO DEFEAT THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

In closing an address to the people of Pennsylvania, Chairman Elkin, gives utterance to the following eloquent and patriotic sentiment which every true Republican should heed and act upon at the coming election:

"It might as well be understood now that this is a contest to defeat Republican supremacy in Pennsylvania. The organization is prepared to defend the party from all these reckless and malicious attacks. It is our purpose to labor for the success of the whole Republican ticket, county as well as state. It is our desire to uphold the administration of President McKinley, and we feel the necessity of returning the greatest possible number of Republican congressmen for this state. It is also important that a Republican United States senator should be returned from Pennsylvania. With a new governmental policy growing out of the issues of the war we should see to it that Pennsylvania is represented by straightout Republicans in both houses of congress.

"In conclusion I desire to say that I shall not enter into any competition with Mr. Wanamaker in defaming the state of which I am proud to be a citizen, besmirching the good name of its people in the eyes of the country. I prefer rather to exalt and glorify it within all proper bounds of language. God has blessed its hills and valleys with matchless resources, above and under ground, far beyond Golconda and the Klondike, and the genius and industry of its people have developed it into an imperial domain. I prefer to look at it with eyes unjaundiced by any disappointed ambition, and to think of it as it is, the home of education and integrity, morality and religion, rather than to proclaim it as a breeding ground of iniquity, whose people choose habitual criminals as their representatives to enact their laws and administer their public affairs."

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, Oct. 31th 1898.

President McKinley has no idea nor has he ever had any idea of guaranteeing one dollar of the bonded indebtedness of Spain, in the treaty of Peace, and our Commissioners are acting under his orders in everything they do. The story that this government, in return for the Philippine islands, would agree to assume $40,000,000 of Spanish bonds issued as a lien upon the Spanish revenues from the Philippines, was originated and circulated in this country by yellow journals and in Europe by journals in the pay of Spain, and has no foundation in fact. At a joint session of the Peace Commission, held today in Paris, the American Commissioners, acting under instructions from President McKinley, informed the Spanish Commissioners that we demand full possession and ownership of the Philippine islands. It is expected that Spain will endeavor to secure a money indemnity for the islands, on the ground that it has spent large sums, including the money raised from the sale of $40,000,000 of bonds issued several years ago, in making public improvements on the islands. The result of that endeavor is as yet undetermined, and will depend largely upon the showing that Spain will be able to make, as to money actually spent on the island. In determining to acquire possession of all the Philippine islands, President McKinley has merely complied with the almost unanimous sentiment of this country, which he has made special efforts to ascertain since the signing of the protocol. He has no desire to be unfair to Spain in any way, just because we have the power to be, and there is no reason to doubt that if Spain shows its right to be paid an indemnity, he will agree to pay it, but it will be paid in cash, with which this government is well supplied, as he will never agree to anything that will mix this government up in any way with Spanish bonds or the speculators who holds these bonds. It is not expected in Washington that the treaty of Peace will be completed and signed before about the 15th of November, but it may be set down as certain that the treaty, when completed, will provide for U.S. ownership of the Philippine islands.

Revised reports from every Congressional district in the country have been received by Chairman Babcock within the past week, and he is now perfectly satisfied that the next House will be Republican, the only question remaining to be decided by election being the size of the Republican majority. The Republican majority in the present House is 57. The most conservative estimates are that this will be reduced about one half, owing to the loss of districts which are ordinarily democratic, but which went Republican in the Presidential election.

President McKinley, Secretary Alger and Adjutant General Corbin have virtually decided just what troops are to be sent to Cuba, when they are to go, and where they are to be stationed, but they have concluded not to make the decision public just yet.

Lieutenant Hobson has made an exhaustive explanation of the condition of the Spanish ships upon which he had been working and the prospect and probable cost of saving them, to a Board composed of the Chiefs of Bureaus of the Navy department, and the Board will decide whether the prospects of success are sufficiently strong to justify the expenditure.

Ever since Senator Gorman carried New York for Cleveland in a campaign that was full of tricks, he has occupied a high place in the good graces of Tammany, and has been invariably called on for advice when ever the party was in a hole, so to speak. Dick Croker sent for Gorman several days ago and the two had a long private conference. It is easily possible that Gorman may have given the Tammany Boss some new tricks, but the Roosevelt boom has reached such a momentum that no sort of tricks can prevent its ultimate triumph. At least that is what all the New York Republicans say about it.

Assistant Attorney General Boyd, who has just returned from North Carolina, says the democratic leaders and press are responsible for the race trouble in that state. He expresses confidence that the Republicans will carry the state by a majority exceeding twenty-five thousand.

It is known that Secretary Alger will, in his annual report, recommend Congressional legislation, authorizing the enlistment of Spanish and Cuban soldiers in the U. S. regular to do good garrison service in Cuba. It is believed also that a course of army dicipline, under U. S., regulation, will be useful in fitting these men to become useful citizens of Cuba when their terms of enlistment expire. They cannot be enlisted without Congressional legislation.

Mr. G. H. Brandt, of 121 Penn street, gardener, says; "I had been suffering at times with a lame back and pains over my kidneys. I was at times so lame it was most painful to straighten up after sitting or stooping and any lifting or turning suddenly hurt me exceedingly. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills and saw some Bellefonte people who had been cured by using them and I procured a box from F. Potts Green's drug store. They removed the troubles at once and I have had no difficulty with the secretions, while before I was much embarrassed by them. I can highly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for I have had no trouble with my kidneys since I used them, and that was several months ago.

A REPUBLICAN vote this year will be a vote of confidence in President McKinley's administration, and therefore it becomes a patriotic duty to cast such a vote. Republican defeat would be a national calamity, because it would be tying the hands of the President and embarrassing him on the settlement of the great international questions that now confront him. No true patriot desires a change of the policy that has been carried on so successfully and that resulted in such glorious victory for our arms! In order that that policy be approved and sustained the Republican candidates now before the people should be elected by an overwhelming vote as an evidence of popular endorsement and as an encouragement to the President in the great work that is before him.

Anything to Save Hall.

Hall and his friends are offering to trade off Assembly and Heinle for senator, to get votes for Hall.

EX-PRESIDENT HARRISON.

In a Letter He Discusses National Questions.

THEY ARE STILL VITAL ISSUES

Action Taken by the Democrats in the Various States Are at Variance—He Contrasts New York and Indiana.

ADVICE TO REPUBLICAN VOTERS

INDIANAPOLIS, November 1.—Chairman Hernly, of the republican state central committee, recently invited ex-President Harrison to take part in the campaign. The ex-president has sent Mr. Hernly a letter in which, after saying that important legal business will occupy his time for several weeks, he discusses national questions as follows: "In New York, where I was recently, the democratic party has pushed aside the free silver question, and is making a campaign upon the theory that national issues, and especially the free silver question, are not involved. In Indiana the case is quito different. The democratic party here has affirmed with emphasis the Chicago platform of 1896, and in our own district I understand the democratic candidate for congress is strongly urging upon the people the issue of free silver coinage at the ratio of 16 to 1. Now whatever may be the case in New York, here a democratic success would distinctively set forward and strengthen the propaganda for free silver coinage. In New York many gold democrats who affiliated with the republican party in 1896 are saying that the free silver issue is not involved, but men of that faith certainly cannot say so in Indiana. It seems to me that it would be a distinct set back for the cause of honest money, and a distinct injury to the state of Indiana, if, in a year so prosperous as this, a majority of our people should vote for the free coinage of silver.

"Honest money democrats, who have hoped that that issue might not meet them again in a democratic national convention, will help to make its appearance there certain if they aid in securing a democratic victory in Indiana this year. The appearent settlement of that issue in 1896 contributed immensely to bring the prosperity which we now enjoy, to give confidence to capital, and to secure work and wages in good money to the workingman. These classes awake then to the vital importance of this issue and respond-en with an overwhelming negative. It would be an unpleasant thing to contemplate if, while in the enjoyment of the fruits of that victory, any of those who supported the cause of sound money in 1896 should now, either from lethargy or pique or through the influence of minor questions, be led either actively or passively to give their aid to the revival and perpetuation of this disturbing influence.

"I cannot understand why any republican in the state should withhold either his influence or his vote from the republican ticket. Small differences as to the details of administration and smaller differences growing out of personal disappointments should be put aside. Another consideration, I think, should strongly influence the voters of the state. The nation went into a war with Spain, supported by the moral sentiment of the great majority of our people of all parties. It was felt that as to Cuba there was a distinct call upon the United States to interpose for the ending of Spanish cruelties and misgovernment there. The firing lines have been withdrawn and our ships are largely in our own harbors, after achievements on land and sea that have given increased fame to American arms; but our foreign relations are still acute and unsettled, and the appeal to which the response was so generous and non-partisan at the beginning of the war, to stand by our own country and its executive and administrative officers should be felt and responded to. Our election results should not give, or even seem to give, encouragement to those who would find in our discords and divided counsels their advantage. Our British cousins have the good habit of standing by when their nation is conducting delicate and irritating foreign questions. Very truly yours.

"BENJAMIN HARRISON."

Can Miners Vote for J. K. P. Hall?

Can miners vote for J. K. P. Hall? What do they think of the arrest by Hall of 63 miners in 1894 in Elk county, and the throwing of them into the Ridgway jail? See affidavit below:

Clearfield Co. s s

Personally came before me, a Justice of Peace in and for said county, Charles T. Turner, who being duly sworn, says: That he is a miner by occupation, and was employed at the Crenshaw Mines for the Northwestern Mining Exchange in the mines, at the time of the strike in 1894. On June 4, 1894, a party of miners, consisting of this deponent, John O'Morrow, James Clydesdale, Thomas Stratton, Wm. McPherson, John McGilly, J. Johnson, Robert Wise, Harry Wise, Mike McTaggart and others, sixty-three in all, were marching in the public highway, with the Stars and Stripes at the head of the company carried by this deponent. When on the public road, in a peaceable and orderly manner and interfering with no person s rights, and entirely unarmed, even without clubs, sticks or weapon of any kind, they were met by the Sheriff of Elk Co., in company with B. E. Cartwright, the superintendent of Hall and Kaul, and other employees of Hall and Kaul, and at the instance of the mining firm of Hall and Kaul,—which firm is composed of James K. P. Hall, now a candidate for Congress, and Andrew Kaul The members of the said body of men, to the number of sixty-three, were arrested and were lodged in jail at Ridgway, Pa., and kept there, without a hearing, for ten days. At the end of that time, fifty-seven men were released on their own bail, and six of them were compelled to give $1000., and were kept under that bail for nine months. During the ten days that they were in jail, this James K. P. Hall was asked what was to be done about feeding the men, and it is alleged that Mr. Hall replied: "Let them go to Hell and starve, and make ballast for the railroad."

At the third court, when they were finally brought up for trial, every man was discharged and the costs put on the prosecutors.

It is now being circulated that the Hall who was connected with this unjust prosecution is not the Hall who is now a candidate for Congress. I am well acquainted with all the facts, and the same Hall who was the cause of our arrest for carrying the Stars and Stripes on the public highway, is the man who is now asking the miners to vote for him for Congress.

These men were charged with carrying concealed weapons, and other serious offences, but when the entire party were searched, not even as much as a pocket knife was found, and at the trial no evidence could be produced that any crime of any kind had been committed.

My present postoffice address is Morrisdale Mines, Pa., and I am prepared to answer any questions, and furnish proof of all that I have said.

CHARLES T. TURNER.

—Monday night was Halloween and the small boy was out in all his glory. Halloween originated with the Druids in England, the ceremonies of the night being a part of their religious rites. But the original purpose has been forgotten in the centuries since then, and now the chief object of young people who celebrate the night is to crowd into its few hours as much of fun and frolic as they possibly can to last them until the next Halloween comes around. Music, dancing, old-fashioned candy pulling, and the usual street frolicing entered into the amusements.

REPUBLICANS who wound their party trying to vent a grievance against some individual candidate of it always regret it after election.

After Typhoid Fever

Did Not Get Over the Weak, Languid Feeling—Terrible Itching and Burning on Limbs and Hands.

"After I had typhoid fever, for a long time I could not get over the weak and languid feeling. I had no appetite and was taken with a terrible itching, burning heat on my limbs and hands. I was treated for a long time, but I did not get any better. I could not eat or sleep. A friend advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I procured a bottle and began taking it. In a few days I felt better and could eat and sleep. I continued taking Hood's Sarsaparilla until I was entirely cured." MRS. R. AVERY, Bergen, N. Y.

Swallow Insults Soldiers.

A correspondent in last week's Chambersburg Public Opinion says:

"Like some few other Republicans I must say that I had intended to vote for Swallow for governor. Until I was fortunate enough to hear his speech in Rosedale I felt it my duty so to do. After that wild and senseless harangue my eyes were opened and I, and other Republicans as well, have determined that no man as full of crazy notions as is the Doctor is well enough balanced to make a good governor for a great state like ours. A man who will call old soldiers like Stone, Gobin, Latta and other Republicans "Spaniards" just because they do not agree with all of his wild ideas is no man to be placed in charge of a state like this. When Swallow insulted the old soldiers and the new ones too in that manner he insulted me and all patriotic men as well and will find out on election day what we think of such rank and thoughtless talk, especially from one who poses as a good man."

Swallow is getting as reckless with his tongue as "Pitchfork" Ben Tillman, of South Carolina, and is daily losing the respect of even those who were his warmest supporters in the campaign of 1897. The idea of calling Colonel Stone, who left his home at the age of 17 to fight for his country, a "Spaniard," is beneath the dignity of even a demagogue, much less a preacher.

In the same catalogue he included Gen. Gobin, the hero of two wars, recently the commander in chief of the Grand Army of the Republic of the United States, as well as national commander of the Knights Templar. Shame on such awful conduct! Shame!!

But what else could be expected of such a man? It was Swallow who copied into his own paper from the New York Voice two years ago the scurrilous charge that our noble president, William McKinley, then a candidate for the presidency had some sort of an interest as a lessor, direct or indirect, in a saloon at Canton, Ohio.

Dr. Swallow's attacks on the Republican party and its candidates in this campaign are on a par with the attacks above. We again submit that he should read, study and practice what will be found in the 20th chapter and 16th verse of Exodus.

SENATOR MASON, of Illinois, made a statement the other day which, the Philadelphia Press says, is deserving of consideration. He said that the delay by the Spanish Peace Commission in Paris is due to the anxiety of the Spanish Government to know the result of the elections in this country on November 8. The Spaniards are hoping, Mr. Mason says, that the Democratic party will carry the elections, because Spain would then be certain to fare much better in the settlement of the Philippine question. In that event the Administration would be rebuked and the American people would be looked on as disapproving the President's policy regarding the disposition of the islands.

On to Victory.

Republican news of the most encouraging character comes from every quarter. The Republicans are thoroughly aroused on account of of the malignant assaults made on their party and its candidates and they propose to rout their malicious assailants in a manner not soon to be forgotten.

Free-traders, free silverites and free liars must stand aside on election day and allow the triumphant Republican forces to pass in review.

The people of this State, of well balanced intellect, are pretty thoroughly convinced by this time that a vote for Swallow is a vote for a falsifier. The Hon. Thomas Pepper was a pigmy in his line compared to this man.

Blaine's Prophetic Words.

In the Academy of Music in Philadelphia during the campaign of 1890 James G. Blaine uttered these prophetic words:

"If Pennsylvania goes Democratic this year, congress will be Democratic, the next president of the United States will be a Democrat, and you will have a free trade administration."

The people of Centre county remember distinctly that the prophecy of Mr. Blaine came true; they were steeped in want, misery and misfortune for four long years and there seems to come from the grave of Blaine this year the same prophecy he made in 1890. Republicans, do not be led astray from your plain duty. Help to avert another panic by voting a straight Republican ballot.

Colonel Waring Dead.

NEW YORK, October 31.—Colonel George E. Waring died here Saturday morning of yellow fever. Colonel Waring was formerly street commissioner of New York, and was acknowledged the best one ever the city had. He returned from Cuba only three days ago, where he had been sent by President McKinley to investigate the sanitary conditions of Havana. He spent some time in the city, and succeeded in collecting a vast amount of data, which he intended to submit to the president.

Dr. Simon Polk, a prominent physician of St. Louis, is defendant in a suit for $10,000 damages brought by Miss Winnie Winhurse, of St. Louis For the last ten years until recently, she was under Dr. Polk's treatment for an affection which destroyed the use of her limbs. She alleges that Dr. Polk wrote an article for a morning paper describing her case and referring to it as remarkable, and subjecting her, she claims, to embarrassment and ridicule.

—An opinion rendered by assistant Attorney General Reeder determines that all soldiers who are at home on furloughs on election day can vote at their usual voting places. On the strength of this ruling Gov. Hastings has only authorized commissioners to take the votes of the soldiers of Pennsylvania regiments in camp and the companies of the Fourth regiment who are ordered to assemble at their armories next Sunday and stay there until mustered out.

POLITICAL PREDICTIONS.

Senator Quay Confident of Colonel Stone's Triumphant Election.

LEGISLATURE SURELY REPUBLICAN

The New York Herald's Forecast Confirms the Senator's Prediction—Candidate Swallow Third in the Race.

MR. WANAMAKER'S PET AMBITION

PITTSBURG, October 31.—Saturday Senator Quay came up from Beaver and spent the afternoon at the Duquesne. Nearly all the republican leaders of Allegheny county called on him. The state campaign was discussed. Senator Quay wanted to know something about the situation in this county, and inquired particularly about Swallow's strength here.

"In some counties throughout the state," said the senator, "Swallow will get more votes than he had the last time, and in some counties he will not get as many. In Philadelphia he will get quite an increase over his vote of last fall. The total vote last fall was quite small in Philadelphia. There will be 200,000 votes polled there this election."

The senator was asked if he did not think it was Wanamaker's plan to throw his support at the last moment to either Jenks or Swallow, whichever one happened to make the best showing just before the election.

"I don't know," replied the senator. "He promised to support the republican ticket at the beginning of the campaign."

"They say you will have 25,000 republican plurality, isn't it."

"I am certain that your leaders here are doing all they can for the ticket. The republican plurality here, I think, will be at least 20,000, and it will be 60,000 in Philadelphia. Now, in the Delamater campaign the ticket had a majority of 1,500, in Allegheny, and Pattison only won by 15,000 majority in the state. If the republicans in Allegheny county do as I think they will they will overcome Pattison's majority themselves. I believe that Stone will be elected. State Chairman Elkin's figures, giving him at least 100,000 plurality, are about correct."

"What about the next legislature?"

It will be republican. There is no likelihood of the democrats carrying it. I expect to be re-elected by it."

An effort was made to secure an opinion from the senator on the general status of the republican cause throughout the country, but he would not go into the subject further than to say this:

"If Roosevelt is beaten in New York and Jenks should carry this state it will make Jenks a strong candidate for president in 1900.

"However, there is not much chance of Jenks carrying the state."

Senator Quay left for Philadelphia this evening. He will return to Beaver next week to stay until after the election.

No Stamp is Required.

Revenue Commissioner Scott, of Harrisburg, has sustained a ruling made by Collector Hershey, of the Ninth district, affecting every voter in Pennsylvania. Collector McClain, of the Philadelphia district, decided recently that orders for the payment of poll tax must bear a twenty-five cent revenue stamp as a power of attorney. Collector Hershey ruled that such a paper was not a power of attorney, but simply an authorization for the payment of tax and that it did not require a revenue stamp. Mr. Hershey received a letter from Commissioner Scott sustaining his ruling.

No Complimentary Votes.

Since Jenks' and Sowden's speeches in the court house on last Saturday night there will not be near as many Republican votes for Bower on election day as there would have been if those speeches had not been made. Republicans don't take kindly to personal abuse and villification of themselves and members of their party; but then that is all the ammunition the Democrats have to use in this year's campaign.

JUST make an X in the ring at the head of the Republican column and your ballot will not be thrown out.

READY FOR THE BIG BATTLE AT THE POLLS

Pennsylvania Republicans Intensely Interested in the Election Near at Hand.

THE DEMOCRATS BANK ON APATHY

Colonel Stone a Prime Favorite in the Betting in the Quaker City.

SWALLOW A POOR THIRD.

Reports From Different Counties in the State Received at Republican State Headquarters Indicate That the Committeemen Are Alive to the Situation and Will See That the Vote Is Gotten to the Polls.

"With a few days left until the issue is settled at the election," says a special correspondent from Philadelphia, "the Republican campaign managers in Pennsylvania, recognizing that the fight is now with their old time opponent, the Democracy, are confident that Colonel Stone will sweep the state with a great majority. They do not expect this to be accomplished without a tremendous amount of hard work on the part of those responsible for getting out the vote, but they have every reason to believe that this will be done. Diligent inquiry has been made to ascertain the weak spots in the party organization and precautions have been taken so that there shall be no losses in these localities. The reports from every section go to show that the Wanamaker-Swallow campaign against the Republican party has had the effect, first, to inspire the Democrats with the hope of capturing the state and to bring their warring factions together for Jenks, and next to awaken the Republicans of Pennsylvania to the danger that confronts them through apathy or indifference, while the Bourbon forces are harmonious and aggressive and determined to win a victory, if possible. There are evidences that the Democratic organization is unusually well supplied with campaign funds. Colonel Guffey, the acknowledged leader of the Democracy, is reputed to be a millionaire many times over, and he has been unusually liberal this year.

THE WANAMAKER BARREL.

"They have had the advantage of the immense expenditures of the Wanamaker organization in its campaign to discredit the Republican party in the eyes of the independent voters. The fact that the Philadelphia Democratic machine, which was supposed to be bankrupt, managed to pay the poll tax of over 25,000 Democratic voters in the Quaker City, was one of the early indications that the Democrats were well supplied with cash. There is said to be a special fund which is to be devoted to the congressional and legislative district contests wherever the Democrats or fusionists think they have a chance of defeating Republican candidates.

"These and other facts bearing on the inside workings of the Democratic campaign have come to the knowledge of Chairman John P. Elkin, of the Republican state committee, and he has sent out a warning notice to the Republican committeemen where it has been deemed necessary In the close districts it has been stated that the Democrats propose to work an old Tammany Hall game by which they hope to secure Republicans to stay away from the polls where they cannot get them to vote for the Democratic or fusion tickets. They have a special appropriation to be expended for this purpose. Republican workers have been advised to be on the alert as to the danger from such a scheme, and there is reason to believe that they will see that every voter is at the polls on election day or know the reason why.

BETTING QUITE LIVELY.

"So confident are the Republican leaders of the fact that the Republican voters of the state are alive to the true condition of affairs and that the county committeemen are going to get out the vote that they are backing their convictions with liberal offers to wager on Colonel Stone's election. In Philadelphia this week a member of the Union League and also of the Stock Exchange announced that he had $2,000 to bet on Colonel Stone against $1,000 on Mr. Jenks, but he had no takers, even at these big odds. A number of smaller bets have been made—one of $500 on Stone to $200 on Jenks, another of $300 to $100 that Stone will be elected and one of $200 even that Stone will have 50,000 majority. A bet of $200 to $100 has been made by a well known Democrat in Pittsburg that Jenks will poll twice as many votes as Swallow. All the betting places Swallow third man in the race.

"The reports received at the Republican state committee headquarters from prominent party men in different sections of the state all show that the Swallow movement, except in a few localities, is on the wane.

STONE TO HEAD THE TICKET.

"Chester county will be carried by every candidate on the Republican ticket from top to bottom," said State Senator William Preston Snyder, of Chester county, confidently. "Colonel Stone will head the ticket in the county. While earlier in the canvass it looked as though there would be a formidable independent Republican vote, it is now apparent that the Republicans have come to realize the importance of this election. They recognize the fact that a vote for Swallow is half a vote for Jenks. The national phase of the coming election, with President McKinley's administration commanding the support of every Republican, that the vote of the people may justly reflect the universal desire to stand by the president, is having its influence in every direction.

NO BRYANITE FOR SENATOR.

"Then the danger of electing a Bryanite United States senator from Pennsylvania, which would be the ultimate outcome of the Republican support of these fusion legislative tickets, has had the effect of lining up Republicans for a full and hearty support of all their candidates. The Republican nominees for the legislature in Chester county are exceptionally strong, and each in his own locality will exert a personal influence for the whole ticket."

"How about the fusion on the legislature?" he was asked.

"The Democratic voters, who are now solid for Jenks, object to voting for Republicans for the legislature. The two Republicans on their ticket will be cut generally by the Democratic voters.

"With the Republican vote going to Stone and the Democrats standing by Jenks, you can see that Swallow is bound to be last in the race in our county."

A BLAIR COUNTY REPORT.

The situation in Blair county is very favorable for the Republican ticket, according to a report received at the Republican headquarters. C. O. Templeton, of Tyrone, is a well known member of the Blair county bar and a prominent Republican.

"There can be no doubt of the fact that the sentiment in favor of the Republican ticket is daily becoming stronger," said Mr. Templeton. "The Swallow boom is on the decline, and while the Democrats are showing more interest in the campaign for Mr. Jenks, this very fact has its influence on the Republican voters, and they will be found standing by their party nominees."

Howard Lyon, who is chairman of the Republican committee of Lycoming county, was in consultation with State Chairman Elkin a few days ago, and he gave a very hopeful view of the outlook in his section of the state.

"We have every reason to be satisfied with political conditions in our county," remarked Mr. Lyon, confidently, when asked as to the outlook in Lycoming county. "The Republicans are lining up splendidly for the candidates on the state ticket and are evincing unusual interest in the preparatory work for getting out the vote and rolling up good majorities for all the nominees. Colonel Stone on his recent visit to our county made a very favorable impression. He inspired every one who heard him with absolute confidence in his honesty of purpose and in his determination to adhere to the pledges he has made to institute reforms in state affairs and to veto any objectionable legislation that may be presented to him. His public declaration that he will refuse to sign objectionable appropriation bills such as failed to receive the sanction of the present executive and which, it is intimated, may be reintroduced at the coming session of the legislature, has placed the critics of the Republican party at a disadvantage. Republicans of Lycoming county decline to admit that they have to go to the Democracy to secure reforms, and they fail to recall when experiments in that line have been effective. With a candid, manly and honorable candidate like Colonel Stone, whose word can be relied upon, they will stand by their party in the present canvass with every assurance that they will have no occasion to regret having done so."

"What about the Swallow sentiment in your locality?" Mr. Lyon was asked.

"There was quite a large vote polled for Swallow in our county the last time he ran," he replied, "but he will not get anything like that vote this time. The more the people get to know about Dr. Swallow and his peculiar ideas the less are they disposed to vote for him. Business men and other men of affairs who have studied the character of the man do not hesitate to express the opinion that it would be a serious blunder to entrust a man of that type with the grave responsibilities of the chief executive of the commonwealth. With the exceptionally strong nominees on the Republican state ticket we have no concern about Republicans in our section standing by their candidates next month. They all realize the national significance attached to the coming election. President McKinley's administration would unquestionably suffer in the estimation of the European nations should the Republicans in states like Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Iowa and others permit Democratic victories next month through their being carried away by the Democratic cry of state issues. In this state the fight is undoubtedly between Stone and Jenks, as anyone familiar with the political conditions must place Swallow a poor third in the race, and here we have the same attacks being made upon Colonel Stone as the Tammany Democrats of New York are making against Colonel Roosevelt. There they are shouting local issues and maligning the brave commander of the rough riders just as they are attempting to discredit Colonel Stone, a brave soldier of the civil war, but this is not a good year to resort to such tactics, and I am confident the election returns from Lycoming county will fully bear me out in this prediction."

Stay-at-home Republicans are assistant Democrats. If it takes a little trouble to get to the polls, your vote is of that much more importance. It is of value to the Republican party and to the nation. Remember that Next Tuesday, November 8, is election day.

The State Senators and the State Representatives who are elected next Tuesday, will, in January next, vote in the Legislature for a United States Senator. Stand by the Republican nominees and thus insure the sending of a Republican to the United States Senate.

A vote for Swallow is half a vote for Jenks. Vote the straight Republican ticket next Tuesday.

Stands Above Criticism.

DuBois has not had a Republican representative in the state legislature, but has been given a candidate this year in the person of W. A. Osburn, nominated for the state senate. A man could not have been chosen in the community who had a clearer or stronger title to the confidence of the public; and it will be shown on election day that the people of his home will endorse with the ballot all that has been claimed for him through the press of his home, which has been giving expression to public sentiment. The fact that this candidacy meets a well justified expectation in a Republican stronghold, and the candidate stands above and beyond personal criticism all over the district, is a good augury for success. The man is right, and the principles for which he stands are right.—DuBois Courier.

REMEMBER, good people, that when the bill providing for a government appropriation for the World's Fair at Chicago came up for action in congress Colonel Stone immediately offered an amendment that the appropriation should be available only on condition that the directors agree to close the fair on Sundays. The proposition was bitterly fought by many of the western members, but it was carried. For this Colonel Stone received the thanks of thousands of clergymen and churchgoers not only in Pennsylvania but throughout the country. He received many resolutions of thanks from religious bodies of every denomination, in which he was generally hailed as "the champion of the American Sabbath."

EVERY Republican vote cast for Swallow is half a vote for Jenks, the free silverite.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Economic Zoology In Pennsylvania.

To most people the term "Economic Zoology" means but little and the importance of work in this subject is not understood. To define the term, Zoology is the study of animals, their structure, life habits, &c., and Economic Zoology is the application of these facts to man, to aid him in protecting himself and his crops from their injuries, or, in the case of domestic animals, to assist him in giving them proper care and protecting them from injury.

The estimated value of farm products in Pennsylvania in 1889—nearly ten years ago—was over 120 millions of dollars, and of market garden and small fruits a million and a half. The value of the fruit crop, apparently, has never been estimated, but it is at least worth five millions each year. Thus we have agricultural products valued at not far from $130,000,000 produced each year in Pennsylvania, and every kind of product is attacked and injured in varying amount by different animals.

It is impossible to give figures showing the value of the live stock of this commonwealth at the present time, as recent estimates are not available. But the horses, cattle, sheep, swine and poultry of the state are valued at over $80,000,000, and much loss in these lines is met with each year as the result of the attacks of other animals.

How much is lost by the attacks of injurious animals, chiefly insects, is difficult to determine. Several attempts have, however, been made to estimate the loss, and it is believed to be at least one-tenth of the amount actually produced. If this be correct—and those who have most studied the subject believe it to be below, rather than above the facts—Pennsylvania each year loses in this way over $13,000,000 To this must also be added the loss from crops, gathered, it is true, but of poor quality, due to injuries by animals. It is well known that a barrel of apples free from the apple worm will sell for considerably more than a barrel of wormy ones, and in this way much loss is incurred. The effect of ticks and other parasites on stock; of gapes in fowls, and of lice, all come in here as direct losses, for even when the animals affected do not die their value as producers is greatly decreased.

But losses by the attacks of insects and other animals do not end here. Timber is seriously injured by borers, leaf eaters, twig girdlers, &c., which not infrequently destroy acres of valuable wood. Grain, after leaving the hands of the grower, is often attacked by weevils and other insects and when millers find their mills infested with these pests in consequence, much expense is often necessary before the mills can be cleared of them. Even after being ground the danger is not over, and dealers in cereal products often lose large sums, as a consequence of the appearance in their storehouses of the different kinds of insects which injure their goods. Every housekeeper has discovered that some forgotten woolen garment has been so riddled by clothes moths as to render it worthless, or that her furniture and carpets are being injured by Buffalo beetles.

These are but a few of the many ways in which man is attacked by animals and suffers much loss from their devastations, and it is probably well within the facts to say that the state of Pennsylvania loses in this way at least $15,000,000 each year.

The above is an astonishing estimate to one who has never looked into the subject and one hardly to be believed possible. The reason for this skepticism, however, is plain. A year in which this loss has never occurred has never been known, and hence we have no standard of an insect-free year to compare by. Let the loss on any crop rise from 10 per cent. to 20 per cent., however, and the outcry is great. The average loss is anticipated or at least we are resigned to it; at the exceptional loss we rebel.

To prevent this loss, or as much of it as possible, is the work of the Economic Zoologist. He must be familiar with the lives of the injurious animals, their ways, when, how, and where they do their injuries, and what methods to pursue, to prevent, or as far as possible, to repair their damages. In the majority of cases this can be easily done, and at a slight cost, as compared with the amount of saving which results.

Other states have long recognized the value of this work and have liberally supported it. Massachusetts began to employ an expert in the subject in 1831, and has profited greatly by her foresight. New York appointed a State Entomologist (restricting the work to insects) in 1853, and the Hon. A. B. Dickinson has given it as his opinion that the fourteen New York Entomological Reports of Dr. Fitch, the first incumbent, have saved annually to the state over $50,000, at an annual expense of less than $4,000. Missouri established such a position in 1867, and the seven reports issued by Dr. Riley are constantly quoted as invaluable both to the farmer and the scientist. Illinois, Minnesota, Ohio, and in fact nearly every state in the Union now recognizes the importance of the work and is giving aid to its further development.

The work is yearly becoming more important as every season insects are becoming more abundant and injurious. One hundred, or even fifty years ago, the amount of destruction they caused was small as compared with today. Since that time many of the most injurious forms of Europe and other countries, unhindered by immigration laws, have invaded this country and developed an increased destructiveness here. Others, native to this country, have extended their range, with disastrous results, the Colorado potato beetle being a conspicuous example. Our very methods of agriculture have changed in a manner which favors the rapid increase and spread of injurious forms; the destruction of our song birds has removed one great check to the rapid increase of insects; and other factors are also present.

One illustration of the value of work in this line may be given: The Gypsy moth is a European insect of great destructiveness but is kept somewhat in check in its native land by various conditions not present in this country. It was accidentally introduced into Massachusetts about 1870, but nothing was heard of it till 1889. During this time it spread over an area of more than 220 square miles. It has been known to feed on over 500 different kinds of plants, including nearly all our native forest trees, fruit trees, field crops, garden vegetables and flowers, and strips the leaves from the plants, causing the entire destruction of the crops of every kind. It is very resistant to the action of poisons and is the most serious pest this country has ever known. The state of Massachusetts, recognizing this, is freely expending large sums of money in the attempt to exterminate this insect, and appears to be succeeding in so doing; $775,000 has already been expended in the work, but if this had not been done and the insect left unchecked to multiply and spread the result to the entire United States would have been most serious. The Gypsy moth work has been conducted under the direction of trained scientists, and it is now believed that this, the largest work of its kind the world has ever seen, will be successful.

Something similar may occur at any time in Pennsylvania. The San Jose scale, a very serious pest, got well established in this state before there was an Economic Zoologist or it might have been kept out and thousands of dollars saved. The Harlequin cabbage bug is a source of much loss to cabbage growers in the Sonth, and is now in Maryland, New Jersey and Ohio. If it is not already in Pennsylvania it soon will be, if it is not watched for by those who know it and how to destroy it. Insects, usually unimportant, sometimes, under favorable conditions, do great damage, as was the case this fall in Blair county, where walking sticks stripped the trees of their leaves over an area of more than a square mile. These and other subjects of investigation are always appearing to demand the attention of the Economic Zoologist, in addition to the attention he needs to give to the usual injurious animals always present.

To study the injurious animals to learn how to control them; to guard the state from invasion by animals from outside; to aid the people in every possible way in saving the millions of dollars they now lose each year—these are the duties of a State Economic Zoologist.—The Patron.

Taxpayers Read and Reflect.

Here is something for the taxpayers to consider and remember. In 1897 the total revenue of the State was $12, 844, 441.67. Of this amount $7,589,437.49 was derived directly from corporations by the various forms of taxation imposed upon them. The only direct State taxation affecting the individual was that upon money at interest, which amounted to $2,476,241.77. But of this amount $1,815,131.48 was refunded to the cities, boroughs and townships. Therefore it will be seen that the direct State tax upon the people of the whole State amounted in reality to but $671,110.29, or about ten cents a head, and all of it paid by the rich who have money at interest, and not a cent by the poor. This is one of the fruits of Republican rule in Pennsylvania.

When the democratic party went out of power in Pennsylvania it had involved the State into a debt of $40,000,000. For State purposes it taxed your real estate, horses, cattle, gold watches, salaries and nearly everything else in sight. The republicans repealed these obnoxious laws, reduced the $40,000,000 debt to $1,000,000, and yet you are asked to vote the democratic ticket. For the sake of your own pocketbook, don't do it. Remember that the Cleveland administration saddled a debt of $262,000,000 upon the American people in times of peace; that it is a free silver, free trade party, that it has demonstrated its utter inability to run either the State or Nation, and that its policy invaribly brings misery and ruin.

THAT DEADLY TARIFF BILL

[Taken from an editorial in the Phila. Inquirer of Oct. 28.]

Let Pennsylvania go Democratic in November, and mark the effect that that victory will produce in the country. It will stir up Bryanism in its most virulent form. The influence of Pennsylvania could not fail to be most important in that direction.

There was an independent fight in 1882, and the Republicans of Pennsylvania permitted so good a man as our townsman General James A. Beaver to be defeated for Governor. It is true that four years latter Pennsylvania thoroughly ashamed of itself, took up General Beaver and made him Governor by a large mojority, but in 1882 he was beaten, and the influence of that Democratic victory gave encouragement to every Democrat and produced a Cleveland in 1884.

In 1890 there was another independent fight, and again the news was flashed throughout every state that Pennsylvania had broken away from its Republican moorings and had cast its lot with Democracy. In 1892 Cleveland was again elected, and he brought into force that deadly tariff bill, and the Democrat majority pushed to the front its free silver schemes, and the Nation was tottering upon the verge of bankruptcy until 1896, when McKinley was elected.

In the light of history, how can any one say that a state election is of no national importance? Just as sure as Jenks carries Pennsylvania in November the whole campaign of free silver and free trade will have to be fought over again in 1900.

Colonel Stone, therefore, is absolutely right when he finds safety for the nation in the success of the Republican party.

The Democracy gave us a so-called tariff reform bill, which closed up our mills and cut off our trade, and, furthermore, plunged the nation into heavy debt. The Republican party has given us a fair tariff bill, which has brought us a revenue and has opened our mills and has given us an export trade such as we have never known. Now we seek to increase that trade and build up our ocean commerce, and the Democratic party, through Mr. Cleveland, through Mr. Bryan, through Mr Bailey, who hopes to be speaker of the next House, and through Mr Jenks, the Democratic Candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, is trying to throw obstacles in the path of advancement. The American flag has been planted upon various islands of the sea. The Republican thought and policy is that where ver the American flag has been raised it must not be hauled down, but Mr. Cleveland Mr. Bryan, Mr. Bailey and Mr. Jenks, would haul it down because they say if we take possession of these islands we shall become imperialistic in our desires. That terrible word "imperialism," is hurled at the nation's head as a reason why we should restrict our trade and come back to good old Democratic times under Cleveland.

Puerto Rico, the Phillipines and Cuba mean very much. They will open up vast markets. Suppose, for instance, that Cuba should belong to the United States. In that case we should not only be able to increase enormously our exports of tobacco, but we should become an exporting country in sugar. Give us Manila and the Philippines and we shall practically control the tobacco trade as well as the hemp market. With corn, wheat, sugar and tobacco as our strong agricultural industries with our exports of oil, which literally illuminates the world, and with our exports of cotton, which is the basis of the clothing of half the people of the world, we ought to have a hold upon prosperity for many years to come.

It is most dazzling to think of the vast opportunities which President McKinley will give us if he has the support of the Nation. That support is in danger by men in Pennsylvania who having personal grievances to revenge, are seeking to wreck the party. How, then, can any one be turned aside from such momentous issues by the personal squabbles of a few disappointed men who have failed to have office trust upon them.

It is impossible to make a local election out of the campaign, in Pennsylvania. We must stand by McKinley. We must place this state in thorough sympathy with him in all things. We must hurl back Bryanism and defeat Jenks, who stands for Bryanism in its most advanced form, for if we do not we simply invite disaster. There is no way for the Republicans of this county to stand by these principles except by voting for W. C. Arnold for congress and every man on the Republican ticket.

A BIG OFFICIAL BALLOT.

Dr. Swallow's and Trickett's Names Head Four Columns.

The form of the official ballot as it will go the sheriffs and commissioners of the various counties in Pennsylvania has been printed by direction of the state department.

Dr. Silas C. Swallow heads the Prohibition, People's Liberty and Honest Government tickets for governor. The only nominee of the latter party is Dr. Swallow. William Trickett is on the Democratic, Prohibition, People's and Liberty party tickets for judge of the superior court. The name of J. N. Weiler appears in the Democratic and People's party for congressman-at-large, and that of Justus Watkins in the People's and Liberty columns for lieutenant governor.

There are nine columns on the official ballot, but as the Citizens' party has been denied recognition on it county commissioners will be instructed from the state department not to include this column on the ballots to be used by voters.

The precaution of putting nine columns on the ticket was taken to expedite the printing of the official ballot and at the same time provide for the contingency which would have arisen had the court decided the nomination papers of the Citizen's party legal.

The full intensity of living is reached only by the perfectly healthy. Sickness discounts the capacity for enjoyment. If his body is all out of order and run down, he will not be able to enjoy anything, no matter how full of enjoyment it may be for other people. If he is just a little bit out of order, if he "is not sick but doesn't feel just right," he will only be able to enjoy things in a half-hearted sort of way. The nearer he is to being perfectly well, the nearer will his capacity for enjoyment be perfect. If this condition doesn't exist, something ought to be done. That means nine cases in ten the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It works directly on the digestive organs, and on the blood and through these on every tissue of the body. Brilliant Wedding at Salona.

Wednesday evening, October 26, the home of Dr. and Mrs. Holloway Salona, was the scene of a very pretty wedding.

At half past seven, while Prof. Chauncey Delong, of Eagleville, played the "Lohengrin" wedding march, the bridal party entered the room. Marguerite Mann and Christine Mann, as flower girls, followed by the bridesmaid, Miss Mary Johnston, of Emporium, Pa., preceded the groom, Mr. Robert Mann Garth, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Garth, of Mill Hall, accompanied by his best man, Mr. T. W. Parsons, of Troy, Pa. Then came the bride Miss Margaret Holloway, and her father, Dr. Luther Holloway. The ring ceremony, an unusually impressive one, was read by Rev. Dr. Holloway of Bellefonte. The prayer was read by Rev. S. W. Pomeroy, followed by a fervent, earnest benediction by Rev. W. C. Robbins. After the congratulations refreshments were served by Caterer Achenbach, of Lock Haven.

The bride was handsomely and becomingly dressed in figured white satin trimmed with mousseline de soie, and carried a boquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid wore white organdie, trimmed with valenciennes insertion over pink silk.

The house was artistically decorated with chrysanthemums and ground pine. The presents were many and costly.

Mr. and Mrs. Garth left amid showers of rice for Lock Haven, where they took the night train for Philadelphia, followed with the good wishes of their hosts of friends. —Mill Hall Times.

How is this?

Perhaps sleepless nights caused it, or grief, or sickness, or perhaps it was care.

One Great Issue.

There is activity among the Republicans all over the country to the end of averting a change in the next congress. The senate will be Republican and the house must remain so if the administration is to go on untrammeled with politics in taking care of the issues of the war.

Every other time the congressional election comes midway in an administration, and the contests are not held to closely to party issues. Local matters are in many sections given precedence; but there is one issue this year which goes before all and should, for the good of our government, be so treated—and that is: shall we stand by the party that must meet the issues of the war?

Remain Steadfast.

Only a dozen days before election remain and the chief duty of Republicans is to continue steadfast. The county is ready to give its Republican majority. The party's candidates are working as a unit, and the personal strength of each is a help to the others; they have the support of their contemporaries and cannot be defeated if the lines stand unbroken until election day. We want republicans in the county offices, in the assembly, in the senate and in congress. Let no fanciful schemes divert attention from this.

The court in New Jersey has just awarded $7,200 damages against the Pennsylvania railroad in favor of a woman thrown against the seat in one of the cars while rounding a curve. This is a precedent which railroad people say will hasten the straightening or taking out of curves from railroads or may change running time in rounding curves.

The democrats concede the election of our entire county ticket, and Osburn and Arnold also.

PHILIPPINES TO BE OURS.

Such is the Logical Result of the Situation.

THE CUBAN DEBT DISPOSED OF

The Annexation of the Philippines Held to be So Probable That the Matter of Dealing With the Cuban Debt is taken Up

SPAIN HAS GIVEN UP CUBA

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The positive assurance given by the American commissioners to the Spaniards at Paris that this government would assume no portion of the Cuban debt and that the Americans were ready to proceed with the consideration of other features of the protocol has had the desired effect. The one concession that our commissioners will make will be to guarantee for the United States that life and property shall be secure in Cuba until a stable government shall be formed there.

It is expected that the commissioners will now take up the subject of the Philippines. It is unlikely that the same rule will be applied to the Philippine debt as was insisted upon relative to the Cuban debt. If the United States annexes the Philippines, which seems now to be the logical outcome of the situation, it might be reasonably contended that at least so much of the debt as represented moneys expended for the improvement of the islands should pass to the United States with the title. It will be for the American commissioners to arrange the details of the transfer of the Philippines to the United States, as it is stipulated in the peace protocol that the disposition of the Philippines shall be arranged by the peace commissioners so that there is ample warrant for full discussion of the Philippine debt, municipal and insular.

Undue significance has been attached to the dispatch of a special messenger from Washington yesterday to the President at Philadelphia. Almost every day a long report has come by cable from Judge Day, president of the American commissioners at Paris, telling what had been accomplished, what the Spanish commissioners were seeking and what the American commissioners propose to do at the next meeting. Yesterday's report was very long, and to have reduced it to cipher code for telegraphing to Philadelphia would have consumed more time and been less satisfactory than the services of a messenger.

It is said at the State department that there is nothing disquieting in the situation at Havana. The evacuation commissioners are meeting at intervals to suit their convenience and the needs of the work in hand. Spanish troops are being shipped homeward, and one way is being cleared for the occupation of the island by the American garrisons at the end of the present year. The attitude of the insurgents is not a cause for apprehension now more than it has been, and the officials are confident that the sentiment of the better element on the island of Cuba will be effectual in securing for the United States officers who are charged with administration of the temporary government of Cuba the cordial support of the vast majority of the Cuban people.

REPUBLICANS, be not deceived by the "still hunt" of the free trade, free silver democracy. There may be, here and there, a democrat who says he is for Swallow, but the bulk of them throughout the Commonwealth are preaching Swallow for effect. At heart they are for Jenks and will vote for him. You should vote your straight ticket, too.

Look after the indifferent and over-confident Republicans. They are the only danger.

A RIP VAN WINKLE TOWN.

Its Banker Takes Twenty Minutes to Cash a Check.

Zurich is a city of contradictions. It has many of the landmarks and characteristics of a sedate old continental town, and it has also the evidences of remarkable prosperity and enterprise. The ornate tonhalle covering an entire block with its great concert hall, pavilion, assembly room and garden terraces; and the majestic Staat theatre, with a commanding position near the lake, and the new postoffice, which is nearly completed, and which displaces many old buildings near the venerable church where Ulrich Ywingli preached, are models of architectural taste, and are supplied with every convenience which even the most fanatical American could demand.

And yet, while Zurich booms, it booms with becoming dignity. There is no more bustle and excitement around a wholesale silk store than there would be around a well-kept parsonage, and yet the dealers in silk are amassing fortunes. One of them who did not have a centime fifteen years ago, is now building a pretentious stone palace on the shore of the lake. In the United States we associate quick money-making with hurrah and noise, but the Swiss seem to have learned how to get rich without roughing up the landscape.

Some of the methods are sufficiently antiquated, according to our standards. For instance, it requires fifteen minutes in which to make a desposit at a bank. Every banking house has numerous chairs outside the railing and the visitor is expected to sit quietly and cultivate a spirit of patience while the machinery is getting under way. A customer who wishes to make a deposit goes to a window and hands in his money, together with a memorandum of the amount. The employe behind the railing counts the money and prepares the receipt for it, adding his signature by way of preliminary. Then a small boy takes this receipt upstairs and submits it to an official who studies it and ponders for a awhile as to whether it will be safe to take the money. If he decides that the bank can undertake the risk he passes the receipt to another man, who prepares a duplicate slip and makes several entries and finally signs his name. Then as soon as another man has examined the receipt and added his name, it is taken downstairs and turned over to the depositor. There is one satisfaction—the money is thoroughly deposited.

An American residing in Zurich went to the bank the other day with a check which had been given him by a business man in a large town near here. He handed in the check and twenty minutes later received his money, less fourteen cents charges. The American was well known at the bank, having been a depositor for about two years. He had indorsed the check. A busy and nervous Chicago man would have torn down the railing before the 20 minutes expired.

THE Democrats of this state are waging a deceptive campaign. Their candidate for governor—Jenks—proclaims to his adherents that this government should return to Spain all Spanish territory captured by the United States, whilst the county Democratic papers tell their local readers that there are none but State issues at stake, while their candidate for governor declares otherwise. Non-expansion of territory, free trade, free silver, give back to the Spanish what we have captured from them is their real issues.

PRINCETON'S CLOSE CALL.

Tigers Make But One Touchdown Against State College.

GUARDS BACK PLAYS USED

Bellefonte Team Gain Fifty Yards Through Nassau's Lines on Woodruff Formation—The Game was a Very Rough One.

SCORE CAME NEAR BEING TIED

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 27.—Pennsylvania State College held the Princeton Tigers down to five point in a game yesterday afternoon that exceeded in fierceness any struggle the Tigers have been through this season. Princeton scored a touchdown in the first half with very little opposition from the team from the State. After that the boys from Bellefonte not only kept the Tigers away from their goal, but most of the playing was in Princeton's territory.

The State College employed the Pennsylvania "guards back play" almost entirely and gained during the whole game almost fifty yards in all through the Princeton line by this. The reason for the smallness of the score and Princeton's poor showing in the second half was due largely to the fact that the field was almost as wet as a duck pond and that a strong wind blew directly against Wheeler's punting. Most of the gains on the part of the Tigers were made by end runs by Reiter and Ayres. The latter was credited with the only touchdown.

The game was unusually rough and there were suggestions of slugging on the part of both teams. When time was called the ball was on Princeton's fifteen-yard line.

State College had the kick-off, which was received by Hillebrand, who carried the ball back ten yards. After the play through center Wheeler punted and State lost the ball on a fumble. Booth picked it up and made five yards. Then Reiter made a fine run around right guard for six more. Princeton lost the ball on a fumble and State failed to break through centre and lost the ball on a fumble. Reiter broke through right guard for five yards and made a second attempt with no gain, but directly after went around right end for five yards and again through left guard for eight more. He made no gain around left end, but got five yards through left guard. State got the ball on downs and punted to Hillebrand, who brought back the ball fifteen yards. Ayres broke through centre for five yards and again through right guard for a touchdown twenty minutes from the time of kick-off. Wheeler failed to kick the goal.

Cure kicked off and Poe caught the ball and brought it back 10 yards. Wheeler punted and Heckel caught it, but was dropped in his tracks. Hewitt attempted to go around right end but was downed by Palmer. Cure punted and the ball went outside of the line. Reiter went around right end and made a gain of fifteen yards. Wheeler went around left end for ten more, while Reiter lost five yards around right end. State got the ball on a fumble, but made no gain on three attempts through the centre. Cure punted and the ball went outside. Reiter made twenty yards around left end, but was dropped within five yards of the goal.

In the second half Wheeler kicked off. Heckel caught the ball. State attempted a run around left end, but lost five yards and then punted and Wheeler caught the ball, bringing it back ten yards. An attempt around the end was made with no gain and the ball was lost on a fumble. Cure dashed through centre for three yards and again through right guard for five more. State then tried a place kick, but failed.

Wheeler kicked off from the twenty-five yard line and the ball was caught by Randolph, who brought it back ten yards. Hewitt went through left guard for five yards and again for five more. State punted to the twenty-yard line. Hillebrand caught the punt and carried it back ten yards. Princeton lost the ball on a fumble. State lost five yards in an attempt around left end. A punt was made to the twenty-yard line by Cure and caught by Hillebrand. Reiter went through centre for five yards but lost the ball. Mills attempted to run around left end, but lost five yards and the ball on a fumble. Wheeler punted again and Hillebrand caught the ball and gained ten yards. Ayres went through centre for five yards. Wheeler punted the ball, which went outside.

An attempt at the end resulted in a loss of five yards. State punted and Hillebrand fumbled but fell on the ball. Reiter smashed through centre for five yards. Wheeler punted. Heckel fumbled and Princeton got the ball. Ayres lost three yards through centre. Wheeler punted and the ball fell outside. Hillebrand receiving the ball, and carried it back for fifteen yards, when time was called. Time of halves fifteen minutes each. The line up was as follows:

Princeton (5)	Position	State (0).
Geer	left tackle	Ross
Booth	centre	H. Mills
Edward	right guard	School
Hillebrand	right tackle	F. Miller
Poe	right end	Farr
Duncan	quarter-back	Heckel
Reiter	left half-back	D. Miller
Ayres	right half-back	Hewitt
Wheeler	full-back	Carr

—For the past three weeks Europe has been buying wheat in this country at the rate of about 3,500,000 bushel per week, to say nothing of the large demand for flour, corn, oats and rye. Last week the actual clearances of wheat and flour from the country were 5,307,000 bushels, or about half a million bushels in excess of last year. Since July 1 the total shipments are only 9,000,000 bushels behind last year, and at the present rate fast catching up. Even France has been a buyer, taking all offerings from St. Louis at 4½ cents advance, and asking for more. In addition to this, north-western mills are unable to get wheat enough to keep up their orders as the grain is nearly all wanted for export.

Another Campaign Lie Nailed.

The Democratic papers of this place published what purports to be the action taken by Post No. 216, G. A. R., of St. Marys, in favor of Candidate Hall and announce that the Grand Army is for Hall. The post never took such action, because obligations taken by its members prohibit them doing so. The whole thing is a Democratic forgery and every Grand Army man knows it to be such. Lying, forgery and theft appears the only weapons that the Democratic party have to use.

DEMOCRACY'S NIGHT.

Candidate Jenks and Party in Bellefonte.

TWO BIG MASS MEETINGS HELD

Speeches by Messrs. Jenks, Sowden, Heinle Bower, Spangler and Others.—Many Republicans Present Out of Curiosity.

BUT CENTRE WILL GO REPUBLICAN

Last Saturday evening was Democracy's night in Bellefonte and the unterrified were in their glory. Although special trains were run on all railroads and the affair was advertised in great shape yet there was not the crowd that was expected. The occasion of all this fuss was the presence in Bellefonte of candidate for governor, George A. Jenks and his party of spell-binders. They arrived in Bellefonte from Lock Haven on the 1.05 train and were met at the station by a committee of leading democrats. Headed by the Undine band the distinguished gentlemen were escorted to the Brockerhoff house where comfortable quarters were provided. In the gubernatorial party were candidate George A. Jenks, candidate for Lieutenant-Governor Wm. H. Sowden, H. P. Wilson, of the Philadelphia RECORD; James Israel, of the Pittsburg POST. G. A. Goshorn, of the Pittsburg LEADER, and Miss G. A. Shields of Altoona, short hand reporter.

During the afternoon several hundred people took advantage of the opportunity to call on Jenks and Sowden.

In the evening two mass meetings were held one in the Court house and the other in the opera house. The former was well filled but there were many vacant seats in the latter house.

Two bands of music were present to make things lively, one from Aaronsburg and the other one from State College.

The meeting in court house was called to order by county chairman Hugh S. Taylor. Hon. John A. Woodward was made chairman and George R. Meek and Fred Kurtz jr., vice-presidents of the meeting.

Mr. Woodward introduced Mr. Jenks as the first speaker of the evening. His speech was made up of the usual tirade against the bug-a-boo of Quayism. His talk was very commonplace and caused very little enthusiasm. He was followed by Sowden, Heinle, Bower, Spangler and others who spoke along the same line.

The meeting in the opera house was called to order by Hammond Sechler. Fred Kurtz sr., of the Centre Hall REPORTER was made president. The speakers were Jenks, Sowden, Heinle and others.

Democrats Fighting among Themselves.

The two democratic candidates for the legislature, Foster and Wetzel, or their friends are cutting one another for the purpose of trying to elect one of them. Mr. Thompson, we are imformed, desires Foster beaten and there are others who desire the defeat of Wetzel. With such a fight between them the proper way for republicans to do is to unanimously vote for the republican nominees Mr. John A. Daley and Eli Townsend and elect them. Either one of them have more ability than either of the democratic candidates and besides they are honest and patriotic, having served their country on many a field of battle in defence of the Union.

AN AGED CITIZEN DEAD.

Henry T. Ryman, of Milesburg, Passes Away at 84.

Henry T. Ryman an old and highly respected citizen of Milesburg, died Monday night at quarter of 12. His death was directly due to a general breaking down of the system incident to old age. For three years he had been confined to the house and during the last year was bedfast.

The deceased was born in Bellefonte, on Spring street near where the armory now stands, April, 28 1814, thus his age at the time of his death was 84 years, 6 month and 3 days.

He was the son of David Ryman. From a mere boy he followed the trade of a miller, working at it up until his 71st year. All his life since child-hood has been spent in the town of Milesburg, except two years that he was a miller at Shawsville, Pa., and during the civil war when he was flour inspector at Philadelphia, Pa.

July 25th 1839 he married Sarah Jane Parkhurst and by this union 3 children were born, viz: Mary E,, now deceased was married to Harrison Levy; James H. T. now living in Missoula, Montana; and Jane C. now living at home.

Henry Ryman was always a staunch Republican and for over 50 years was an Odd Fellow. He has been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church since 1848.

The funeral will take place Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment in the old Milesburg cemetery. The Odd Fellows will have charge of the funeral. Rev. George King and Rev. W. O. Wright will conduct the services.

Burned to Death.

Last Saturday afternoon an 18 months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Mantle, of Bald Eagle twp., Clinton county, was so badly burned that it died a short time afterwards. Mr. and Mrs. Mantle were engaged in performing their duties in the yard and orchard. The child was in the house playing with the ramrod of a gun. While Mr. Mantle was in the orchard he heard the child cry loudly and went to the window and looked in. He saw the child lying on the floor, but as it had ceased making a loud noise for the time being, he returned to his work. A little latter he again heard the little one screaming and running into the house he was horrified to see that his child was burned to a crisp.

Dr. McCloskey of Mill Hall, was summoned. He did all that he could to relieve the suffering of the child, but it lingered in terrible agony for a few hours and then expired. Its clothes were burned off the body and chunks of flesh fell off in many places

It is supposed that the child stuck the ramrod in the stove and that its clothes came in contact with the flame.

ACADEMY WON.

Defeated the Strong Williamsport High School Eleven.

A most exciting game of foot ball was played on the glass works meadow last Saturday afternoon between the strong Bellefonte Academy eleven and the team from the Williamsport High school. The result was a victory for the boys on the hill by the score of 12 to 0. The game was hotly contested from start to finish and was witnessed by over 500 people.

This victory is an important one owing to the fact that the Williamsport boys won the High school state championship last year.

Potter, Henderson, Palmer and Hughes did the star playing for the Academy. The line-up was as follows:

Republican Mass Meeting.

There will be a Republican mass meeting at Bellefonte, Pa., in the Court house on this Thursday evening Nov. 3rd 1898, which will be addressed by General Adam E. King, Hon. W. C. Arnold, Hon. Duquesne Beat State College.

PITTSBURG, October 31.—The Duquesne team, recently put under the ban for professionalism by the A. A. U., tore away Pennsylvania State College's laurels in a rattling game Saturday afternoon. The Duquesne stars were out to beat Princeton's score against State and did so. They earned three touchdowns and when the game was ended had the ball on State College's one-yard line ready for a fourth score. State began the game with the old Pennsylvania guards' back play, but as Gelbert, Jackson and Farrar are University of Pennsylvania graduates, they quickly stopped it. The line-up was as follows:

DUQUESNE (18)		STATE COL (5)
Church	left takle	Ross
Lawler	left guard	Randolph
Jennings	centre	Murray
Smith	right guard	School
Farrar	right tackle	F Miller
Okeson	right end	Blair
Williams	quarter-back	Heckel
Kiefer	right half-back	Hewitt
Jackson	left half-back	D Miller
Young	full back	Curt

Umpire—E. W. Brainard.

Referee—Matthew McClung.

Linesmen—D. C. and A. C. Bull, State College; Reuben Rose.

Time—20 minute halves.

—It is properly stated that but one man of the Pennsylvania cavalry squadron has died from disease contracted in Porto Rico, and that man had so far recovered from his illness to be out of danger, but he indiscreetly went hunting, overtaxed his strength, took a relapse and died at the Massachusetts general hospital. His remains were buried at Bryn Mawr a couple weeks ago. His name was Stewart W. Wheeler. He was twenty-one years of age, and a graduate of Harvard in the class of '98. He played tackle on the Harvard team for three years, and on the breaking out of the war joined the City Troop. He was a brother of the Countess Pappenheim and Mrs. Richard M. Elliott and Mrs. Henry Norris of the eastern part of the state, and was widely known in society. Fifty would perhaps be a fair estimate of the number of men of the squadron who have or are now suffering from fever of one form or another.

Do NOT forget that Jenks is the man who stumped the State in 1896 for Bryan, free silver and free trade. Vote for Stone and the whole Republican ticket.

REPUBLICANS should bear in mind that the boat cannot be scuttled in one place and not be endangered in another. Vote the straight Republican ticket.

Parsnip Complexion

It does not require an expert to detect the sufferer from kidney trouble. The hallow cheeks, the sunken eyes, the dark, puffy circles under the eyes, the sallow parsnip-colored complexion indicate it.

A physician would ask if you had rheumatism, a dull pain or ache in the back or over the hips, stomach trouble, desire to urinate often, or a burning or scalding in passing it; if after passing there is an unsatisfied feeling as if it must be at once repeated, or if the urine has a brick dust deposit or strong odor.

When these symptoms are present, no time should be lost in removing the cause.

Delay may lead to gravel, catarrh of the bladder, inflammation, causing stoppage, and sometimes requiring the drawing of the urine with instruments, or may run into Bright's Disease, the most dangerous stage of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great discovery of the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, is a positive remedy for such diseases. Its reputation is world wide and it is easy to get at any drug store that no one need suffer any length of time for want of it

However, if you prefer to first test its wonderful merits, mention REPUBLICAN and write to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghampton, N. Y., for a sample bottle and book telling all about it, both sent absolutely free by mail.
